

VIII Edition - Study visit to PHILADELPHIA AND 4 DAYS IN WASHINGTON

November 25 - December 6 2020

“The best possible exposure you could ever get to the U.S. system of law and justice through court visits, observation of jury trials and meetings with key players of the legal community.”

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

- Mini-lectures on the American legal system over breakfast
- Visit to civil and criminal courts (observation of jury selection, opening statements, cross examination of witnesses and experts; instructions to jurors, verdicts)
- Visit to law firms, FBI headquarters and Federal Prosecutors’s Office;
- Guided tour of National Constitution Center
- Tour of Eastern State Penitentiary
- (In Washington) Visits to Supreme Court, Congress and Arlington Cemetery

SOCIAL PROGRAM

- Tour of the Washington and Philadelphia main attractions, including memorials and museums
- free time and “do-what-you-want” weekend in Washington
- social dinners, gala reception and night-outs
- sports game (optional)

Group photo 2019

THIS VISIT IS IDEAL FOR

- Law students and graduates
- Lawyers
- Judges and prosecutors
- Academic lawyers

No minimum level of English is required as interpreting services and translations are available throughout the visit.

TRAVEL PLANS

Depart on Wednesday, November 25 - morning flight from Italy

- 4 nights in Washington (Wed-Sun)
- 6 nights in New York City (Sun-Sat)

Return on Saturday, December 5 - night flight from Philadelphia (arrival in Europe in the morning of December 6)

Group photo 2019

The visit has run since 2013 and is led by Stefano Maffei (University of Parma, Italy), Claudia Ricci (EFLIT, Italy) and David Sonenshein (Temple Law School, Philadelphia)

Philadelphia

Washington

